RAISE THE POSTPONEMENT FLAG OR SOUND THE HORN?

RESOURCES FROM THE REGION & BEYOND

- Total materials cost less than $70
- Basin & foot valve/ pedal/faucet unit purchased through Amazon.com

FEDERAL RESOURCES

- As with all other infectious diseases, the CDC has readily available resources
 - This pertains to best practices as well as additional information to prevent the spread of the virus
- The Council of State Governments is also providing multiple resources
 - They complete weekly updates regarding legislation and access to federal assistance

SAILING WORLD RESOURCES

- Guidelines, best practices, and plans for reopening Sailing Centers are accessible online
- US Sailing and World Sailing have both provided detailed guidelines and expectations in order to maintain a uniform approach to avoiding the spread of disease

HOW ARE WE SAFELY FACILITATING REOPENING?

- Directing members and their families to the COVID-19 resources made available by US Sailing
 - Also documents from Gowrie, the ACA field guide, the Junior Sailing Program, and the CDC
- Consulting with organizations that were not required to shut down
 - Using a similar approach as it has proven effective for their group
- Creating/Following Best Practices
 - Following the Suggested Opening Matrix and ACA Field Guide

OUR NEXT STEPS

- We must remain flexible and keep ourselves updated on CDC guidelines
- Remember to stay connected as a community
 - Brainstorm ideas with a trusted group within your organization as new information or important news is released
- Keep an open dialog with the authorities and healthcare officials in your community

BIGGEST QUESTIONS

- Should we allow out of area students?
 - Do we allow students that have attended back-to-back camps without a period of quarantine in between?
 - How do we keep it serious but maintain the fun summer camp atmosphere?
 - How do we recover financially in a way that respects our families and donors?
 - What will youth regattas look like in the upcoming season?
 - Will we be able to resume high school sailing?
 - How should we deal with adventure/big boat sailing?
